

A Brief Housing Guide to Portland

Listed below are some helpful housing resources. Residents live all over the Portland-metro area, with each choosing a neighborhood that best suits their needs. The main OHSU Campus is located on Marquam Hill in the Homestead neighborhood in downtown Southwest Portland. (Note: some of the longer links may need to be copied into your web browser to work properly.)

OHSU Off-Campus Housing Website

The OHSU Off-Campus Housing site has for sale/for rent listings and other useful housing-related contacts: www.ohsu.edu/housing

Guide to Portland Neighborhoods

Portland Monthly magazine has an excellent guide to Portland's many diverse neighborhoods.

The Portland Business Alliance – also has additional facts on Portland and neighborhood information

Housing & Apartment Search Websites

There are several realty agencies and regional multiple listing service websites available.

www.rmls.com - Portland regional MLS www.portlandmlsdirect.com - Another regional MLS website.

www.realtor.com - National MLS site and moving resources including a searchable database of Portland – area realtors.

www.zillow.com

www.rent.com

www.move.com

www.apartments.com

www.apartmentguide.com

Media Resources

Portland's various papers have several for rent/sale listings as well.

The Oregonian (Portland's daily paper)
www.oregonlive.com

Portland Tribune (Free paper published twice weekly)
www.portlandtribune.com

Willamette Week (Weekly News & Culture Paper)
www.wweek.com

Miscellaneous Sites

Google Maps – <http://maps.google.com>
(Type 'Portland, Oregon' for an interactive map of the city)

Public Transit (Tri-Met) – www.trimet.org

Portland has a large mass-transit system that allows for easy, efficient commuting from several neighborhoods to OHSU.

Line #8 bus runs approximately 5am-midnight, with trips every 10-15 minutes to OHSU from downtown Portland; #8 also connects to all MAX light rail lines.

Express lines #61, 64, 65, 66, & 68 run directly to OHSU Mon-Fri during heavy commuter times only.

The Portland Streetcar picks up at the base of the Tram and travels to downtown and northwest Portland.

Craig's List Portland

<http://portland.craigslist.org>

Search for housing, items for sale, and more.