

Hands-on training and education in:

Emergency Department operations and quality improvement.

Healthcare informatics, metrics and key performance indicators.

Lean methodology, continuous process improvement, creating and maintaining standard work.

American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP) Emergency Department Directors Academy Phase I. Graduates of this unique program will receive a certificate of completion documenting their pursuit of excellence and participation in specialized management training.

Complete and present quality improvement projects.

Value-based care initiatives and population health.

OHSU and Portland State University (PSU) Healthcare MBA program or similar program.

OHSU Hospital
3181 S.W. Sam Jackson Park Rd.
Portland, OR 97239
www.ohsu.edu/school-of-medicine/emergency/

OHSU accepts most health plans.
OHSU is an equal opportunity, affirmative action institution.

HCM 22023611 6.24

DEPARTMENT OF EMERGENCY MEDICINE

Administrative Fellowship

Now accepting applications

Develop your career in healthcare operations, quality improvement, and leadership as an active member of the Emergency Medicine administration team.

Qualifications

- Board certified/ board eligible in Emergency Medicine.
- Strong interest in emergency medicine quality improvement and operations management
- Interest in healthcare administration leadership roles such as medical director of an Emergency Department, clinical quality improvement medical director, or other physician administrative leadership roles in academic and community hospital settings.

Overview

Oregon Health and Science University (OHSU) Department of Emergency Medicine offers a 2-year Emergency Medicine Healthcare Administration Fellowship. Fellows complete a two-year Master's in Business Administration (MBA) degree as part of this program. This fellowship is approved by the Society for Academic Emergency Medicine (SAEM). It is ideal for Emergency Medicine residency graduates with a strong interest in healthcare quality improvement, clinical operations, service excellence, and financial management.

How to apply

We welcome prospective applicants to contact the Fellowship Directors through the Program Coordinator via e-mail at regner@ohsu.edu.

A letter of interest and curriculum vitae should be attached to the initial communication.

